

been assessed highly. successful because there are still some JKN participants who feel that using the JKN mobile application will incur additional costs because the login process requires regular credit in order to receive an OTP code via SMS. BPJS Kesehatan needs to include in the flayer or video tutorial if registering for me Mobile JKN deducts regular credit so that before registering an account, participants can top up credit first.